Non-accessible contents

Non-accessible content

The content listed below is not accessible for the following reasons:

- Non-compliance with Law no. 4 of 9 January 2004:
- Some headings (H*) may not follow a hierarchical order and/or may not provide users with a clear indication of the main topic of the page
- Some text links may not be clearly identifiable without colour recognition
- Some links containing visual content may not have a corresponding textual description
- The colour of some text elements may not offer sufficient contrast with the background and/or surrounding elements
- In some cases, the focus indicator for interactive elements may not be clearly visible
- Not all images include a textual alternative description that explains both the objects and any embedded text using the “alt” attribute
- Some functions may not be operable via keyboard (or equivalent input interfaces)
- There may be elements with non-unique IDs
- Some PDF files are not fully accessible
- Some text paragraphs may not correctly support text resizing or spacing adjustments
- Some audio-visual content may lack proper subtitle synchronisation

Stefano Ricci S.p.A. is actively committed to improving the accessibility of its digital properties through ongoing monitoring and the implementation of targeted technical measures. However, despite this commitment, additional non-compliant elements may still be present beyond those listed above.
